in Peru, with six hotels of 4 & 5 star ratings in the cities of Cusco, Lima, Arequipa, Puno, Urubamba Valley and Trujillo and five franchised hotels in the Colca Canyon, Tambopata, Huaraz, Mancora and the Urubamba Sacred Valley.
With a total of 810 rooms located in the main Peruvian cities, 750 employees.
www.libertador.com.pe

* My main task when I arrived in Peru was to develop the chain, which started with 4 hotels and Increase to 11 hotels up to November 2006.
* I standardized all processes and information management systems within the group and implemented control and operating systems.
* I supervised all major renovations of the hotels, purchasing of properties overseeing some USD 60 millions expenditure between 1995 - 2006.
* Of the six hotels, three are rated as 4 stars although I upgraded the service standards to international 5 star levels.
* In 2005, the hotel chain had an EBITDA of 42%.
* Left Libertador management with ongoing process of building a 300-room 5 star hotel in Lima plus a 150-room, 5 star hotel in the Sacred Valley, scheduled for completion mid-2011. Did the market studies and pre projects with a well known firm of architect from USA. Both hotels are now Westin Lima and Luxury Collection Tambo del Inca Urubamba.
* The franchised hotels were mainly good 3 star hotels or lodges located in cities or main tourism destinations, permitting the chain to cover all Peru from the Coast, the Andes and the Jungle.

General Manager

Cape Sierra Hotel, Freetown, Sierra Leone

Tasked with reorganization of the hotel with a new management company, Planning and supervising major renovation without closing any part of the hotel operation.
Cape Sierra Hotel, 4 stars, 5 outlets, casino, night club, 75 rooms, 80 bungalows and a sports center.
Freetown, Sierra Leone (10 months)

* In one year, I was able to renovate most of the rooms using only operating cash flow.
* Brought the hotel up to international 4-star level.
* Due to the impending civil war, I had to leave the country.
* It is a Hilton hotel since 2012.

General Manager of the Hotel Cristal in Cannes, France

Tasked to straighten out the Hotel operation, reduce costs, increase the revenue and occupancy rate.
Hotel Cristal, 4 stars, 51 rooms, restaurant, swimming pool and bar.
Cannes, France
www.hotel-cristal.com

* When I took over the management of this hotel, debt represented nearly 100% of the assets.
* The hotel was unable to pay the loan when I took over, so my first task was to reduce the cost of operations and renegotiate the loan payment with the bank.
* After 4 years, I left the hotel in a financial healthy situation, complying with creditors and showing a net profit.
